Introduction – Why Learn English?

English is one of the most widely spoken languages in the world, with over 1.5 billion people using it for communication. Whether you want to travel, study, work, or simply talk to more people, learning English opens up many opportunities.

This guide is designed to help you start learning English step by step. You will find useful words, simple grammar explanations, and everyday phrases to help you communicate with confidence.

Learning a new language takes time and practice, but even knowing a few words and phrases will help you in real-life situations. Start with small steps, and soon you will feel more comfortable speaking English.

The English Alphabet and Pronunciation

English has 26 letters in its alphabet. Some letters may sound different from your native language, so it is important to practice pronunciation.

Common Pronunciation Tips:

- Some letters have different sounds depending on the word. For example, "c" in cat sounds different from "c" in city.
- Some letters are silent, like the "k" in know or the "b" in comb.
- Vowel sounds can be tricky. The letter "a" sounds different in cat, cake, and car.

Basic Greetings and Introductions

In English, greetings are used in daily life when you meet people. Here are some common phrases to start conversations:

- Hello! / Hi! – General greeting
- Good morning! – Used before noon
- Good afternoon! – Used after 12 PM
- Good evening! – Used after 6 PM
- How are you? – Asking about someone's well-being
- I'm fine, thank you. – A polite response
- Nice to meet you. – When meeting someone for the first time
